Christine's Hamburger Pie

Christine and Dennis P. Fox, Ph.D.

Whenever Dennis and I got together at Christine's after a hard day sweating over the pool table, er, lab bench in grad school, we'd have this casserole. Yum!!

*1 lb ground beef
½ cup chopped onion
½ tsp salt
pinch pepper
1 can (15 oz) green beans, drained
1 can tomato soup, undiluted mashed potatoes (about 1 potato per person)
2 Tbsp butter, cut into small bits
½ cup Cheddar cheese shreds*

Preheat oven to 350° F. Brown meat and onion in a skillet until onion is tender. Add salt and pepper, then add beans and soup. Stir and then pour mixture into 2-quart casserole dish. Spoon mashed potatoes on top of casserole, smoothing them out until the meat mixture is completely and evenly covered. Dot top with bits of butter, and sprinkle top with cheddar cheese if desired.

Bake casserole for 25 to 30 minutes, or until cheese is melted and potatoes just begin to brown. Serve with Red Raspberry Ring to bring back wonderful memories of graduate school.
